Sally Martin (RE First Brookline) Committee on Ministry (1st - partial term - class of 2019)

Sally Martin moved from the Syracuse, New York area to the Boston area in 2013 and became a member of First Presbyterian Church in Brookline in 2014. She is currently a Ruling Elder at FPCB and also sings in the choir. She is grateful to have found such a welcoming church home at FPCB.

Sally has been a Presbyterian all her life, growing up in the Ward Memorial Presbyterian Church in Livonia, Michigan. She was an active member of the Northminster Presbyterian Church for 30 years in North Syracuse, New York. While attending Northminster she sang in the choir and served at various times as Sunday School Superintendent, Deacon, and Elder. She also taught adult and children Sunday School classes, served as a youth group director, and acted as Treasurer for the Northminster Nursery School for many years.

Sally lives in Shrewsbury, MA with her husband and dog, Sophie. Moving to the Boston area has allowed her to be in close proximity to her daughter and son-in-law and her son, daughter-in-law, and four grandchildren. Sally is a recently retired School Psychologist but continues to work as a classroom paraprofessional in the Shrewsbury, MA School District.
